“At Chukchansi Gold Resort and Casino, promotions drive our business. They are an intricate part of our strategy to encourage people to spend money at our resort.

We purchase everything from VIP embroidered bathrobes, products for amenity baskets, pens and printed forms to T-shirts for our employees from Safeguard. It’s nice to know that we’re helping a local vendor and supporting the local community at the same time.

I look forward to my distributor’s weekly personal visits because he makes ordering promotional products easy for me. He contributes to my success with his legwork and willingness to think outside the box. Not only do I consider him a colleague, but a friend. His personal touch is inspiring.”
